Category:Electrical wiring Category:Safety codesAnita Radcliffe Anita Radcliffe (born 6 May 1962) is an English actress. Early life Radcliffe was born Anita Louise Radcliffe in Redditch, Worcestershire, England, to Richard and Diana Radcliffe. She studied English at St Catherine's College, Oxford University. Career Radcliffe began her acting career in 1983 and played the role of Julie in the comedy television series Mr. & Mrs. Smith, in which she met her current husband Greg Wise. The show ran for three seasons and ended in 1986. In 1987, she played Lynda Stead in the comedy series The Bill. Radcliffe played Dr. Katherine Mann in Emmerdale from 1987 until the character was killed off in 1988, a role which earned her a British Soap Award. She also played a part in the soap's spin-off Emmerdale Farm, from 1992 to 1995, this time as Dr. Rosie Gee. Radcliffe has appeared in television advertisements for the Gillette Venus razor brand. From 1999 to 2002, Radcliffe played the role of Kate Moore in the British soap opera EastEnders. This was followed by appearances in BBC soap opera Doctors as Tanya Stephens (2002–2003). From 2004, she played the role of Receptionist Julie in the TV soap opera, Coronation Street. From 2004 to 2006, she played the role of Paula Fairclough in BBC soap opera EastEnders. From 2004 to 2010, Radcliffe played the role of Rosie Mann in the BBC soap opera Doctors. In 2012 she was seen in Emmerdale as the role of Harriet Butterfield, from January to November 2012, then Harriet reappeared in December 2012 in the spin-off for the character, Emmerdale Farm. In 2013, Radcliffe joined the cast of the stage play The Odd Couple as Blanche. On 14 December 2013, it was announced that Radcliffe had been cast as the lead character in the comedy series Jack the Ripper, which is due to begin filming in April 2014. It is to be broadcast on BBC One in 2015. Personal life Radcliffe married Greg Wise on 25 August 1985. They have two sons, Matthew and Jack, and a daughter, Louisa.
