Get this and other games for up to 80% off: Infal Am Alive presents the player as a solo player. You must exit the building and start exploring the area. Don't forget that there is danger. Not only can you get hurt, but you can also die. If you die, you can start over. Remember that you must be able to do this within three minutes. If you die, you will lose all your saved games and the game. Now you have all these elements; your character, weapons, items, ammo, etc. And you can start the game. But what will you do?
